Hebrews 10:23-25 (New American Standard Bible)

23Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful; 24and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, 25not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more as you see the day drawing near.

let's grow together personal application

Our world these days is become very "Me-Centric." In the words of Janet Jackson, "What have you done for me lately?" With reality TV becoming the mainstay and people becoming more and more focused on themselves, it's somewhat out of the ordinary to consider others first, let alone love them and encourage them. When's the last time you went out of your way for someone else with no expectation of anything in return? How can you love others the way Christ loves us?
